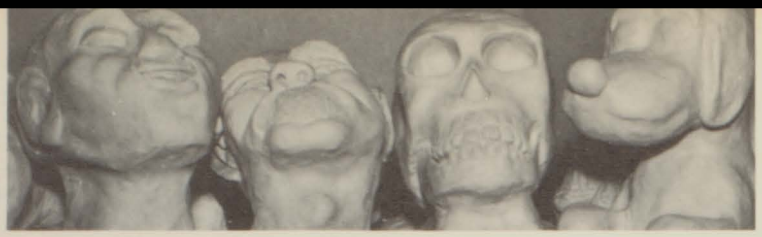
FULLERTON, NEBRASKA Volume 40



Foreword .....

The WARRIOR has a "New Look" for 1969, a look which extends from a bold black cover design to larger and more natural photographs. This edition of the WARRIOR has been designed to portray the 1968-69 school year as it was; to capture certain moments and memories that make an F.H.S. year special. We hope that you will be as proud of the "New Look" as we are, and will cherish this WARRIOR and the memories it contains for many years to come.

47 Seniors Face Future

What began as a dream in the fall of 1965 became a reality three years later for 47 F.H.S. seniors . . . . . the dream of becoming a senior. Many events transpired during those first three years. Adjustments were made academically and socially, friends were gained, lessons were learned, athletic contests were won and lost, and each individual at one time or another experienced his own personal victories and defeats. Then came August, 1968, and the sudden recognition of being a senior. Also, with such recognition came the realization that days at F.H.S. were numbered. A fast pace followed, a number of dances and social events, senior portraits, Homecoming victories in football and basketball, Sneak Day, Prom, Baccalaureate, and finally, Commencement. After graduation, these same 47 individuals looked back to F.H.S. and forward to the future.

Juniors Receive Class Rings

The annual junior joy day is the blessed day when class rings arrive. This day was somewhat different for the '69 juniors in that two styles of rings were on display. Most juniors chose the new "academy" style ring, and looked forward to graduation in 1970. Junior officers were: Judy Robertson, president; Robert Zaruba, vice-president; Jane Morgan, treasurer; Mary Fredrickson, secretary.

Soph Pace Quickens

The 1968-69 sophomores valued their more mature standing, the title of freshman being long forgotten. With the sophomore standing came a faster pace, both academically and socially. Dating, driving, varsity athletics, and widespread social activities all played a major role in producing a busy but fun-filled sophomore year. The sophs also sported the largest class at F.H.S. with 55 members. Leading the "class of '71" were the following officers: Wendel Potter, president; Bob Oakley, vice-president, Carol Brower, treasurer; and Rosemary Lesiak, secretary.

Frosh Face Adjustment

The freshman class experienced a period of adjustment during the early portion of the 1968-69 school year. The overall adjustment concerned such tasks as getting used to new teachers, a rotating schedule, study halls, and advanced classes. By semester break, however, most freshmen seemed to loose their puzzled looks, and were obviously looking forward to 1969-70, when they would be classified as "Upperclassmen." Leading the freshmen were the following officers: Debby Shotkoske, president; Jerry Collins, vice-president; Pam Wetovick, treasurer; Dorene Hebda, secretary; and Cathy Beed, student council representative.

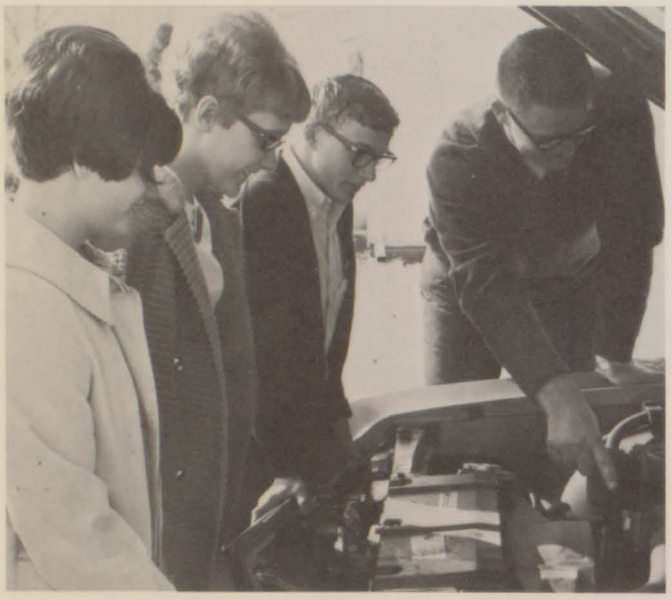
Classes Examined, Expanded



Mr. Petricek explains the components of a gasoline engine to Driver Education class students Linda McCray, Terri Zumbrunn, and Roger Nesbitt.

Curriculum is the foundation of any school system. During the 1968-69 school year, the curriculum at F.H.S. was not only expanded but also given a close examination in efforts to further "strengthen the foundation" of the system. In addition to the normal required subjects in the English, science, and social science departments, students had choices in many elective fields which included vocational agriculture, home economics, and driver education.

The fine arts area of the curriculum was given an added boost when extensive classes were added in art, speech, and dramatics. The 1968-69 school year was the first full year in which the expanded fine arts program operated.

In April the curriculum was examined and evaluated by the North Central Accreditation team. This coincided with faculty and administrative evaluations made during the school year, which were in turn presented to the team.

Students in Mrs. Lough's art class study sculptoring techniques. A large number of students enrolled in both Art I and Art II classes during the year.

Vickie Lewis and Janice Dubas participate in a game of "indoor baseball" during a Girl's P.E. class.

Students work in Mr. Miller's Mechanical Drawing II class making last minute plan corrections.

Mr. Bill Witty is shown talking with a parent during the November parent-teacher conferences. Parents were informed of student progress in all classes.

F.H.S. Life Not All Work

Work wasn't all there was to being an F.H.S. student. Students found time during the 1968-69 school year to attend many social events and also to associate with fellow students. Whether attending a dance, promoting school spirit, or just plain "goofing around," F.H.S. students found that the right combination of work and play could combine to produce an enjoyable school year.

There's always time for quiet meditation in a secluded corner as evidenced by Junior Mark Hunzeker.

Everything from secrets to scandal is discussed during the noon gathering outside the front entrance.

Mr. Ralph "Chief" Koskela and Mr. Leigh "Eagle" Metcalf played a faculty role in promoting football Homecoming spirit.

Faculty

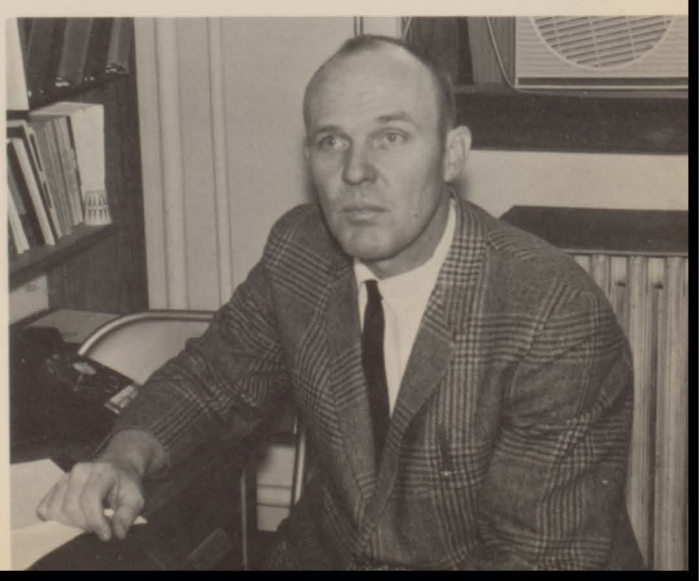
Board Task Not Easy

Administrators, namely board members, superintendents, and principals, share the task of running a school. This task is by no means an easy one. Board members, the elected representatives of taxpayers, must answer to the public for any decisions that they make. Superintendents and principals must see that everything within the system is operating efficiently.

Mr. Willard Hunzeker, superintendent, received his B.A. degree from Peru State College and his M.S. degree from the University of Omaha. He has served as F.H.S. superintendent for eleven years.

Mr. Max Irvin completed his second year as principal at Fullerton High. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Wayne State College.



Many Return To F.H.S.

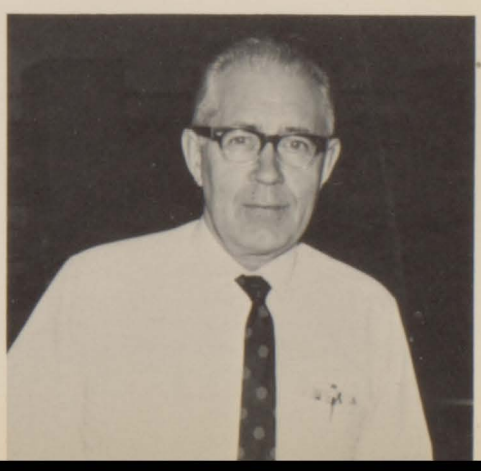
Mr. Ralph Koskela completed his second year of teaching at F.H.S. Mr. Koskela, who holds a degree from Black Hills State College of South Dakota, taught biology and grade school science.

Mr. Leigh Metcalf, who received his degree from Nebraska Wesleyan, completed his fourth year at F.H.S. He taught World History, World Geography, and Spanish I and II, and also sponsored the Current Affairs Club.

Mr. Gary Yost completed his tenth year as music instructor at F.H.S. Mr. Yost received his degree from Nebraska Wesleyan.

Mrs. Janette Knowles, who served as librarian, completed her ninth year in the Fullerton system. She is a graduate of Doane College.

Mr. Walter Wolvin, during his second year at F.H.S., served as guidance counselor. He received his degree from the University of Nebraska.



Three On Coaching Staff

Mr. Dean Petricek, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, taught Physical Education and Driver Education during his second year at F.H.S. Mr. Petricek also served as head basketball coach and assisted in football and track.

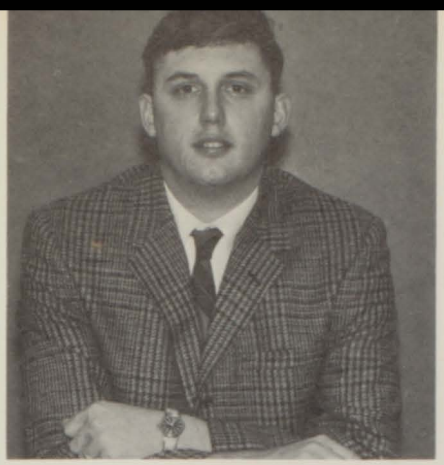
Mr. Barry Miller completed his third year of teaching industrial arts and Physical Education. Mr. Miller, a University of Omaha graduate, also served as head football coach, and assisted in basketball and track.

Miss Linda Bartels, a graduate of Peru State College, taught all commercial courses during her third year of teaching at F.H.S. She also sponsored the Pep Club.

Mr. Bill Witty, teaching in his first year at F.H.S. taught Algebra I and II, and Math IV. A Peru State graduate, Mr. Witty also served as head track coach, and assisted in football and basketball as well as sponsoring the Student Council.

Mr. Harold Dissmeyer, a University of Nebraska graduate, taught all vocational agriculture classes and sponsored the FFA. This was Mr. Dissmeyer's fourth year at F.H.S.

Mrs. Diana Lough, serving her second year at F.H.S., taught art, speech, and drama. She also sponsored the Kaztors and class plays.

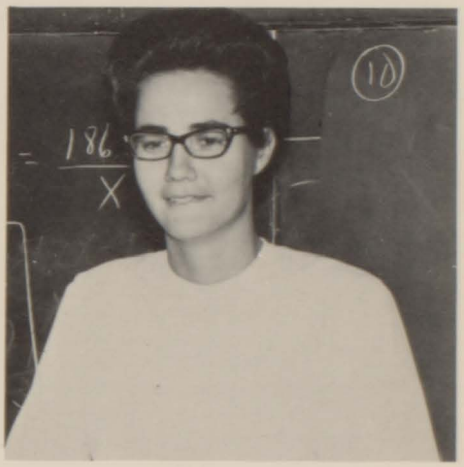


Mr. Gary Camp, a Kearney State College graduate, taught freshman and sophomore English. This was Mr. Camp's first year of teaching at F.H.S.

Miss Minnie Hendrickson, a University of Nebraska graduate, served her first year at F.H.S. She taught American History and American Problems, and co-sponsored the Pep Club and Current Affairs Club.

Six New Teachers At FHS

Mrs. Irene Kula served her first year as Home Economics instructor at F.H.S. A University of Nebraska graduate, Mrs. Kula also sponsored the F.H.A.



Mrs. Jane Swartz, a Nebraska Wesleyan graduate, taught General Science, Chemistry, and Physical Education during her first year at F.H.S. She was also a sponsor of the Student Council.

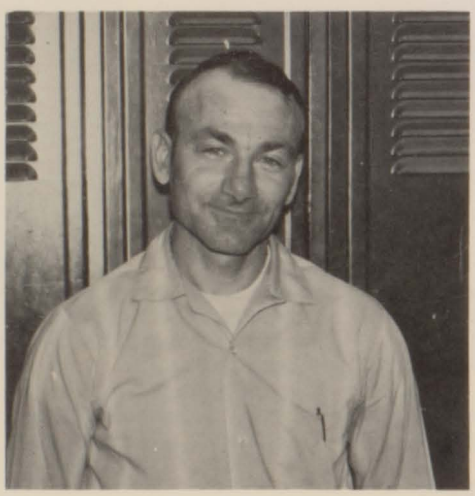
Mrs. Lynn Wingrove, a University of Nebraska graduate, taught junior and senior English during her first year at F.H.S. She also assisted with dramatics.

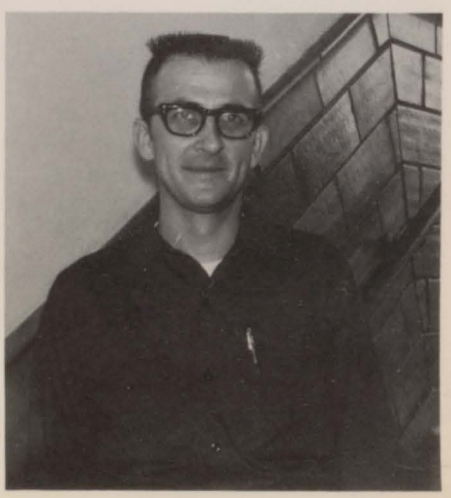
Mr. Leo Chronopulos, serving his third year at F.H.S., taught Practical Math, Pre-Algebra, Geometry, and Chemistry. Mr. Chronopulos is a graduate of Kearney State College.

Personnel Numbers Seven

Mrs. Ruby Newquist completed her second year in the Fullerton system, serving as assistant office secretary.

Mrs. Margaret Leininger, who serves as office secretary, completed her ninth year at Fullerton High.





Mr. Virg Kula (left) and Mr. Ray Dubas served as custodians in the High School building during the 1968-69 school year.

Serving their second year in the newly-completed lunch room were cooks Mrs. Mary AcAfee, Mrs. Alice Sidders, and Mrs. Liz Stopak.

F.H.S. Pep Club members turn out in blankets, ear muffs, coats, and gloves to support the Warrior gridders on a frosty October night.

Organizations

The Student Council began its activities early with the sponsorship of two fall activities. The Council sponsored the Career Day in October in which representatives from companies, armed services, and colleges met with students and parents. The organization also sponsored the annual "Sadie Hawkins" dance in November, which the student body enjoyed immensely.

The Council rewrote its consititution in 1968-69 to update policies. The task was accomplished under the leadership of three faculty sponsors: Mrs. Jane Swartz, Mr. Bill Witty, and Mr. Walter Wolvin.

Junior Mary Fredrickson and Senior Greg Zabka join in the "Sadie Hawkins" competitive spirit in the marshmallow-string game.

Senior Dale Lesiak and Junior Linda Whitney attentively watch the "Sadie Hawkins" proceedings.

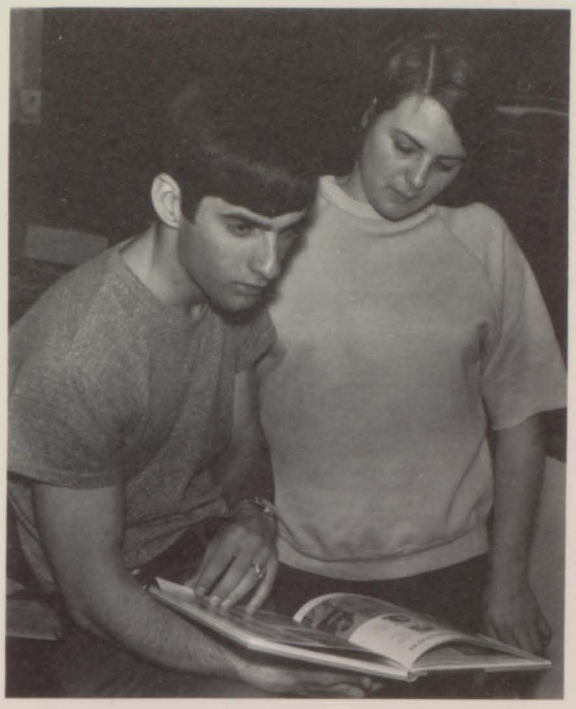
Senior Wayne Wondercheck finds that apple bobbing isn't all that easy.

Staff Uses "Team" System

Making deadlines, scheduling meetings, and late hours at work. These were just a few experiences that "Warrior" staffers encountered in 1968-69. A new system under a new advisor highlighted the year.

The staff was divided into several "teams" to facilitate working and scheduling of meetings. Mr. Gary Camp served his first year as advisor, as well as chief photographer, which earned him the nickname of "Flash."

Jane Bowman and Greg Zabka, both seniors served as co-editors, and senior Joan Zaruba served as layout editor. Seniors Jim Maly and Sam Brower served as sports editors. Junior Mark Hunzeker served as business manager for the publication.



Co-editors Greg Zabka and Jane Bowman examine a sample yearbook in search of new ideas.

Pep Club Promotes Spirit

The Pep Club provided spirit, pride, and morale when backing the 1968-69 athletic squads. Football activities included the pre-season bonfire and Homecoming activities. Homecoming activities included uptown window decorating, parade, and the post-game dance.

Preparing of signs, posters, and rallies, as well as Club attendance at home and away games helped to make the Pep Club year a successful one.

The Pep Club was again under the sponsorship of Miss Linda Bartels. She was assisted by Miss Minnie Hendrickson.

Lone Senior Leads Yell Corps

A cheerleading oddity was in evidence during the 1968-69 school year. Only one senior, Joan Zaruba, was a member of the varsity cheerleading squad. Joan the elected head cheerleader, was joined by juniors Jane Morgan, Janeene Davis, Judy Robertson, and Mary Fredrickson.

The reserve squad was composed of freshman Judy Zaruba and sophomores Vickie Lewis, Carol Brower, and Judy Maly. The reserve group, which was elected in the fall, wore "candy stripe" sweaters similar to those worn by cheerleaders at the University of Nebraska.

1968-69 Varsity Cheerleaders included: Standing, Head Cheerleader Joan Zaruba, and Kneeling 1. to r. Jane Morgan, Janeene Davis, Judy Robertson, and Mary Fredrickson.

F-Club "Rings In" Year

F-Club member Jim Dubas lends a "Man's Hand" to school spirit at a basketball game. Jim, a senior, was this year's Warrior mascot.

Lettermen "rang in" the 1968-69 school year with the initiation of the F.H.S. victory bell. The bell, which once rang above the grade school building, was reconditioned by the lettermen. It was given a bright coat of cardinal paint, and then adorned with a white letter "F." The bell was a welcome addition to the promotion of school spirit.

The Club sponsored two major events during the year; a junior high basketball tourney, and the annual basketball dance in March.

Throughout the year, the Club continued to maintain its goal; promoting good sportsmanship, while awarding excellence in F.H.S. athletics.

F.H.A. Has Busy Schedule

The Fullerton Future Homemakers of America Chapter centered its 1968-69 activities under the motto "United We Are, United We Do." The slogan was used by all District IV chapters for the annual October F.H.A. poster contest. The chapter members at F.H.S. "united" themselves in the sponsorship of many activities during the school year.

First semester activities included the Tasting Tea, Caroling Party, Daddy Date Night, and the Saturday School Clean-Up. Second semester activities included the Style Show, F.H.A. Week, and the Senior-Faculty Farewell.

Projects introduced during the 1968-69 school year included the selling of cook books, and the preparing of Christmas gifts for U.S. soldiers in Viet Nam.

Mrs. Irene Kula served her first year as the F.H.A. advisor. Chapter mothers included Mrs. C. H. Hebda, Mrs. Ray Dubas, Mrs. Kenneth Davis, and Mrs. Robert Zaruba.

F.F.A. Takes Part In Judging

"Green Hands" and "Slave Tenure" were the main highlights on the 1968-69 Fullerton F.F.A. agenda.

Incoming F.F.A. freshmen received the formal initiation-rite dyed "green hands" in the fall. The "greenhands" were thus ushered into the four-year program in style. In November, volunteer F.F.A. members were sold as "slaves" on the "auction block." The "slaves" were sold to area patrons who in turn used their newfound help to do farm work. Money from the project went to the F.F.A. treasury.

F.F.A. members also took part in land and livestock juding contests during the year under the sponsorship of Advisor Harold Dissmeyer. The social highlight of the year was the annual F.F.A.-F.H.A. dance held February 15.

Junior Ed Dubas was the leading chapter speaker in 1968-69. Ed finished second in state contest competition.

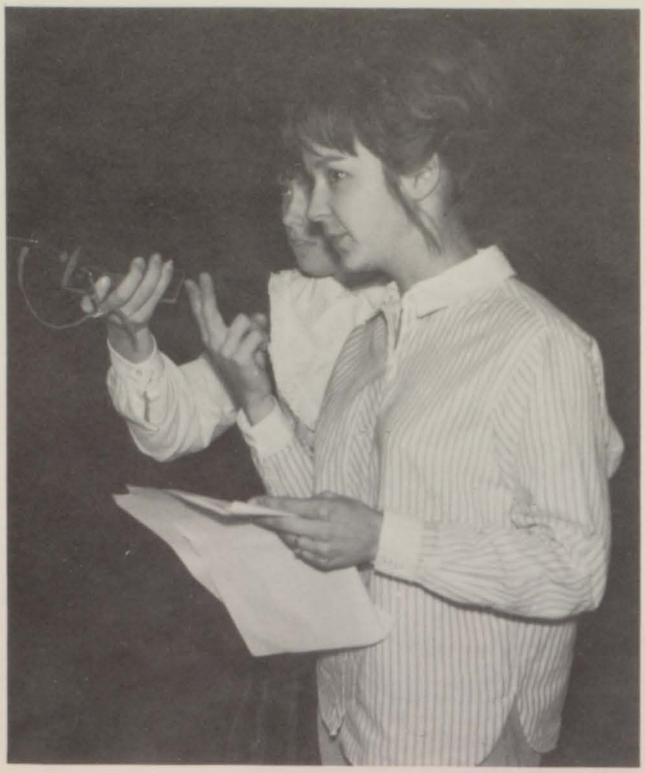
A large crowd attended the annual F.F.A. Banquet held April 26. President Jim Dubas is shown addressing the gathering.

Dramatists Become Kaztors

The Fullerton High drama club organized in 1968-69 to become the Kaztors. The name Kaztors was chosen by majority vote, and a constitution was drawn up during the first semester.

An initiation was held for 18 founding members in November. These members became active through committee work, acting experience, and contest speaking.

Officers for the group during the 1968-69 school year were: Rhonda Christensen, president; Steve Delancey, vice-president; Sandy Kramer, secretary; and Judy Maly, treasurer. Mrs. Diana Lough sponsored the group assisted by Mrs. Lynn Wingrove.



Mrs. Diana Lough, Kaztors advisor, is shown giving directions to Judy Robertson during a play production practice session.

Kaztor members Sandy Kramer and Ed Dubas are shown in a scene from the contest production "Everyman."

Senior Rhonda Christensen scolds Ed Dubas in the morality contest play "Everyman." The Kaztors won several top ratings with the play, and also earned a trip to the Fine Arts Festival in Lincoln.

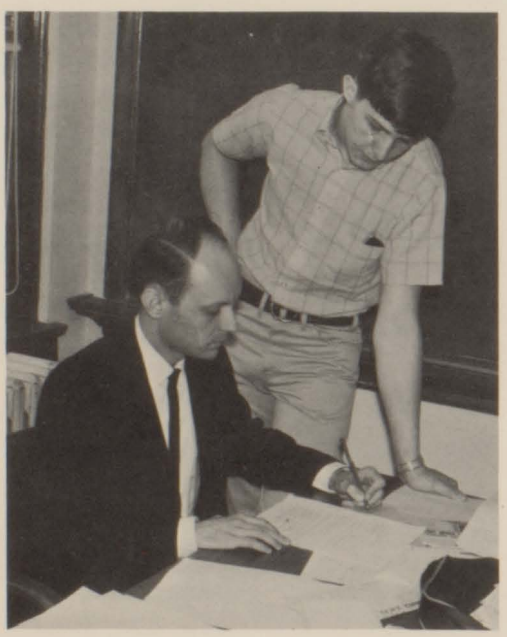
Affairs Club Looks At Issues



Junior Mark Hunzeker examines the Current Affairs constitution with Sponsor Mr. Leigh Metcalf. Mark was the group's second semester secretary-treasurer.

The Current Affairs Club was devoted in 1968-69 to the promotion of interest in problems of the times, giving F.H.S. students an awareness of world happenings. Gun control laws, civil rights, campus disorders, and the Electoral College, were a few of the national issues discussed and debated upon during the year.

The Club also participated in an annual field trip held in the spring. Mr. Metcalf and Miss Hendrickson sponsored the group.

Current Affairs officers were l. to r. Sam Brower, Student Council Representative; Carol Stone, secretary-treasurer (first semester); Robert Delancey, vice-president; and Robert Zaruba, president.

Gridmen Finish 3-5-1

Inconsistency with touches of power .....this statement summed up 1968 F.H.S. football fortunes in 1968. Warrior gridmen, although ending with a 3-5-1 record, managed to outscore opponents 128-112. Victories were by very convincing margins of 45, 39, and 25 points. Four of the five defeats saw the Warriors shut out, and lack of scoring punch resulted in a narrow 6-7 loss to Centura and a scoreless tie with Shelton.

Many returning lettermen look forward to the '69 season. Heading the list of returnees will be many '68 headliners including Tim Roewert. Roewert, a junior, led the '68 squad in scoring with 50 points, and rushing with 610 yards. He also led the team in kick-off and punt returns. Also returning will be defensive dandy Bob Oakley, who was creditied with 136 tackles as a sophomore in '68.

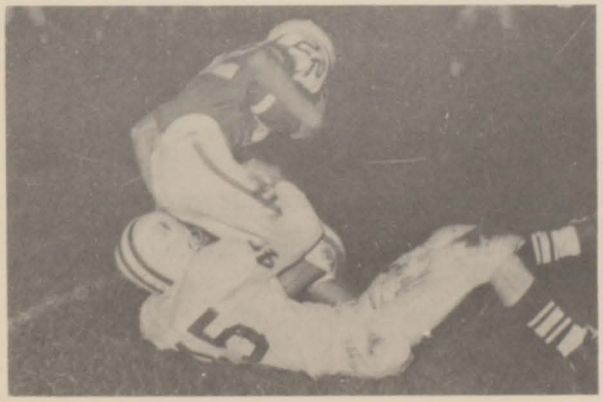
Bone-jarring tackles such as this one helped make sophomore Bob Oakley (45) an all-conference choice.



Seniors Bill McKeeman (23) and Greg Zabka (16) gang tackle a ball carrier.

Three Make All-LPC

Three Warrior gridders were named to the Lou-Platte Conference All-Star team following the close of the 1968 season. Sohpomore Bob Oakley and Senior Greg Zabka were named to the defensive team; Junior Tim Roewert was selected for the offensive unit. Oakley was a defensive standout as a linebacker, leading the team in tackles. Zabka, a defensive back, led the Warriors in blocked and intercepted passes. Roewert was F.H.S.'s "Mr. Offense," leading the team in scoring and rushing.

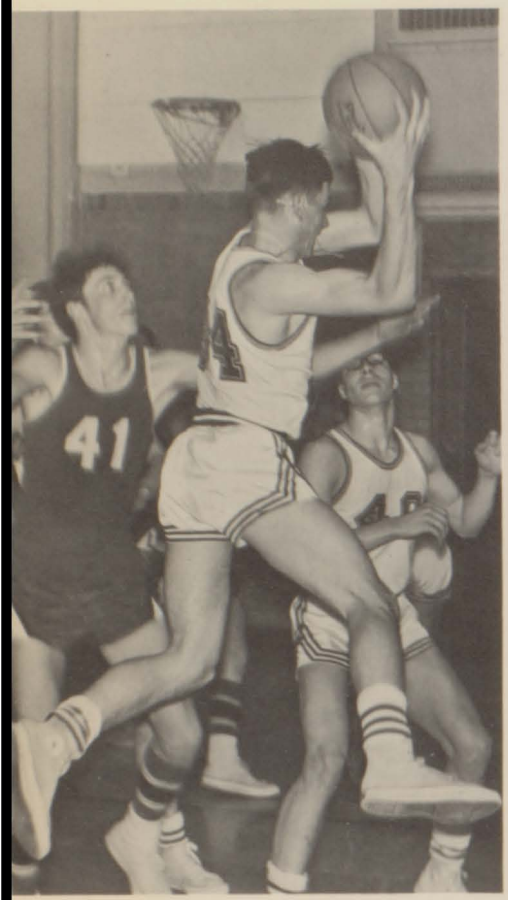
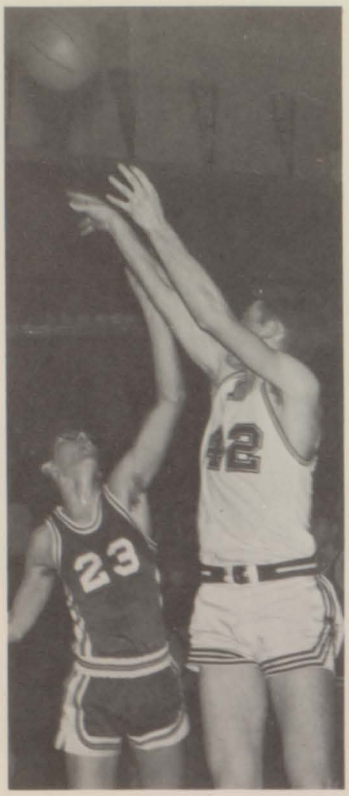
Cagers Show Promise

Despite the 6-14 won-lost record for the '68-'69 campaign, F.H.S. basketballers have shown that they may be tough to reckon with in the future. Many of this year's losses were closer than the final score indicated, and in many contests, the Warriors were not counted out until the closing minutes. An example of such spirited play was in the opening round district tourney clash with eventual state tourney entry Osceola, in which the Warriors led by large margins in early stages of the game. The season highlight was the final home game upset win against Loup City, 84-73.

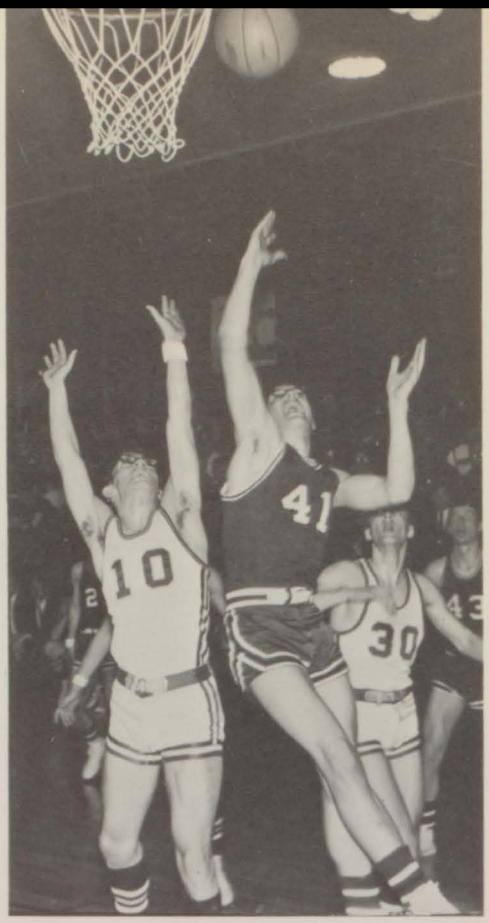
In addition, the top two scorers and rebounders from the '68-'69 club will return next year. George Palmer, a junior hot shot, tallied 302 points for a 15.1 per game average, and hauled down 214 rebounds. Junior Jerry Thomas finished in runner-up position in both departments with 244 points and 159 rebounds. Another bright spot was late-blooming Junior Tim Horacek. Horacek, who started the season as a reserve team post man, worked his way into a starting varsity position by the middle of the season. He finished the season strong, swishing 34 points against Loup City.



Senior Bill Morgan pulls down a rebound against Loup City, won by the Warriors, 84-73.



Junior Jerry Thomas shoots over a Wood River defender.



Junior Tim Horacek (41) battles with a St. Edward cager for a rebound. Horacek's fast improvement during the last half of the season helped the F.H.S. cause.

Trackmen Are Successful

The strain of an exhausting race is evident in Junior George Palmer's facial expression as he nears a 440-yard dash victory in the St. Edward dual. Trailing Palmer is teammate Senior Bill McKeeman.

F.H.S. trackmen braved late-spring elements to develop themselves into conditions for a highly-successful 1969 campaign. Workouts during the month of March were confined to the gymnasium as extended winter weather forced the cindermen indoors. The '69 squad was composed mostly of newcomers and was particularly short-handed in depth. As a result, F.H.S. opponents managed to outscore the Warriors with many second, third, and fourth place finishes in most events. Nevertheless, the squad managed to "make the best" of the situation by taking many first places in running events. The squad began the season with a respectable second place finish in the Genoa Invitational. Other April meets saw the Warriors score second, third, and fourth place finishes respectively in the St. Edward-Genoa Triangular, M-B-N, and Albion Invitational. The cindermen won a dual meet with St. Edward in early May, then climaxed the season with a fifth place finish in the Lou-Platte Conference Meet, and a sixth place finish in the District Meet at Ord. The Warriors qualified for four State Meet events and scored four points with a second-place finish in the Class "C" mile relay.

Senior Greg Zabka hands off the relay baton to Junior teammate George Palmer. Zabka and Palmer joined Senior Bill Morgan and Junior Tim Roewert to form F.H.S.'s all-time best mile relay team with a State Meet clocking of 3:29.7.

Cinder Marks Are Amended

Junior Tim Horacek displays the form which enabled him to tie the school high jump record of six feet.

Many outstanding performances by F.H.S. trackmen broke, tied, and threatened existing school records. Leading the way was Junior Tim Roewert who added a :50.3 440-yard dash clocking to the records, and tied the 220-yard dash mark of :22.5. Roewert also anchored the mile relay record-breaking performance at the State Meet in Kearney an outstanding 3:29.7. This performance bettered a 3:33.6 effort set earlier in the season. Junior Tim Horacek tied the school high jump mark at 6 feet to become the district high jump champ. Senior Bill Morgan, a consistant half-mile performer, ran 2:03.4, which was only some two seconds off the school mark. Another outstanding performance was by Sophomore pole-vaulter Dave Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald cleared 11 feet one inch, and showed promise of surpassing the school record of 11' 11 3-4". Junior George Palmer ran :54.0 in the 440, and showed much improvement from his sophomore year. With Roewert, Palmer, Horacek, and Fitzgerald returning in '70, another record-harvest is planned.

The record-breaking mile relay quartet was composed of Greg Zabka, Tim Roewert, George Palmer, and Bill Morgan. The team finished second in the State "C" meet with a 3:29.7 time. The team finished a blazing "kick" by anchorman Tim Roewert (extreme left), who also established himself as a top individual performer in the quarter-mile.

The group received an "excellent" rating at the N.S.A.A. District Music Contest in April. The select Madrigal group sported a "new look" while performing this year. Members of the group were attired in flashy red double-breasted blazers. The group performed for the same events as did the Mixed Chorus, and also played for numerous community groups.

The Sophomore Boys Quartet composed of Dave Larson, Dale Dubas, Dave Fitzgerald, and Doug Gilson also earned an "excellent" rating. Male vocal solo ratings were also high, as Mark Gloor, Mark Hunzeker, and Donn Russell received "superior" ratings, and Dale Dubas rated "excellent."

Band Attends K.S.C. Band

The Marching and Concert bands completed a rewarding year in '68-'69. The Marching band performed football halftime shows and attended Kearney State's Band Day in October. The Concert Band performed for the Christmas Concert and Band Concert in March. The group also received an "excellent" rating at contest. In addition, the Pep Band provided spirit at all home football and basketball games. All bands were under the direction of Mr. Gary Yost.

Special Events

Seniors Sponsor "Imaginary Invalid"

A seventeenth century French setting highlighted the Kaztor presentation "The Imaginary Invalid." The Senior Class sponsored the three-act comedy under the direction of Mrs. Diana Lough October 2. All Kaztor members played a major role in making the production a success as extensive effort was spent in costuming, publicity, make-up, and stage setting. Junior Ed Dubas played the leading role of Monsieur Ardin, the invalid. Actors and actresses represented all four high school classes.

"Miracle Worker" Presented

The Junior Class sponsored Kaztor production, "The Miracle Worker," was presented November 15. The gripping three-act production portrayed the true early life story of Helen Keller, and her battle to overcome mental anguish caused by blindness.

Sharing the leading roles were sophomore Judy Maly, who played the role of Helen, and senior Rhonda Christensen, who played the role of Annie Sullivan, Miss Keller's famous teacher.

Annie (Rhonda Christensen) tells Captain Keller (Dave Cunningham) that she must have more freedom to teach.

Kate (Debbie Nesbitt) and Jamie (Richard Schlitt) discuss the tense Keller family situation.

Three blind girls (Sandy Kramer, Judy Robertson, Vickie Lewis) tell Annie that they'll hate to see her leave the school as Anagnos (Dan Syslo) looks on. Extreme right: Annie struggles with Helen (Judy Maly) in an attempt to teach her better table manners.

Barb Stickney Is Football Queen

MISS BARBARA STICKNEY
Football Homecoming Queen

Miss Barbara Stickney was crowned the 1968 Football Homecoming Queen, October 18. The coronation climaxed a thrilling day of activity which included a parade, pep rally, football game, and dance.

Students spent many hours decorating for the festivities. Organizational and class floats were presented at a downtown parade and pep rally, and the six senior queen candidates were also presented.

F.H.S. followers were then treated to the Warrior's finest home football display of the season as the team bombed Wood River, 46-7, in an evening game. The dance and coronation then followed with Barbara receiving congratulations from many well-wishers. The end of the dance signalled the end of a successful event and the beginning of a happy memory: Football Homecoming 1968.

Alumnus Is Athletic Speaker

Mr. Sam Sample, a 1959 graduate of F.H.S., and head football coach at Dakota Wesleyan University, was the featured speaker at the annual Athletic Banquet held April 11. Mr. Sample gave an inspiring message, stressing that an athlete should have faith not only in himself but also in God.

The banquet was sponsored by the Lions Club and served by the F.H.A. paying tribute to all F.H.S. athletes, Pep Club members, and cheerleaders. Coaches Miller, Petricek, and Witty introduced team members in football, basketball, and track. Miss Linda Bartels, Pep Club sponsor, introduced and thanked members and cheerleaders for their support. Mr. Jack Russel was presented with an "Honorary F" for his contribution to F.H.S. athletics.

"Love Me Forever" Prom Theme

Weeks of planning and hard work by the Junior Class was climaxed on May 3 with the presentation of the long-awaited Junior-Senior Prom titled "Love Me Forever." The gym was transformed into a lovely garden scene, complete with summer tea house, fountain, shubbery, and the Neo-Classical replica lawn furniture.

A delicious meal was prepared by the Junior mothers and served by Sophomore waiters and waitresses appropriately attired in eighteenth century apparel of matching pastels shades. Featured speakers for the banquet were faculty members Mrs. Diane Lough and Mr. Gary Camp. A song and dance number to the music "Please Love Me Forever" was given by the waiters and waitresses. The enjoyable evening was concluded with a dance, with music by the Ord Swing Band.

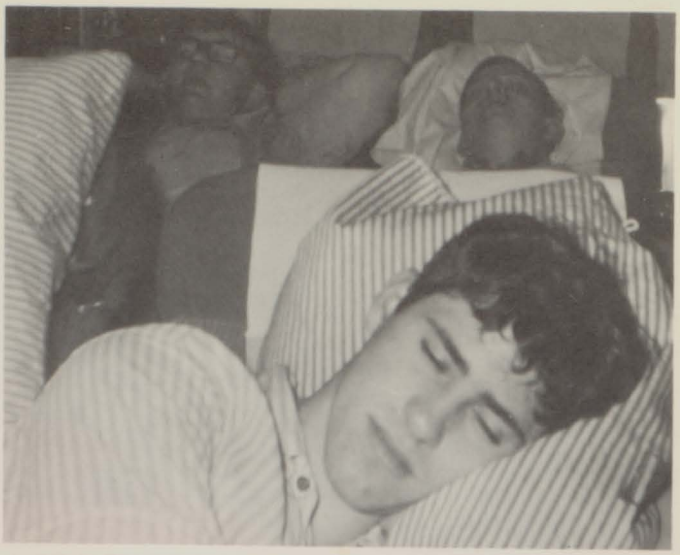
Seniors "Sneak" To Denver

Tired! Such were the feelings of F.H.S. seniors upon returning from Denver and the sneak trip April 12-13. The return concluded some 25 hours of fun which included bus rides to and from Hasting's Burlington station and fabulous train rides on the "California Zephyr." While in Denver, seniors toured a damp Mile High City and gazed at foggy but beautiful mountain scenery. Sponsors of the trip included faculty members Mrs. Diana Lough and Mrs. Mary Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Chronopulos.



A camera catches Dale Lesiak and two classmates in one of the few peaceful moments on the trip to prove a point . . . . they were only innocent when asleep.

One of the non-sleepers on the trip was a sponsor, Mr. Chronopulos.

Closing

The American Flag . . . . a familiar symbol to all F.H.S. students . . . . portrays a fitting close to the 1968-69 school year. During the past year, this symbol was both respected and abused in a divided world. Many Americans saluted and pledged allegiance to this symbol; other scorned this symbol in protest and hatred.

During the year, this symbol covered the coffins of U.S. servicemen who paid the supreme sacrifice for their country. It also flew at half mast, as pictured above, in respect for General Eisenhower. In contrast, it was not recognized by U.S. Olympic athletes on a victory stand in Mexico City. This symbol was also the victim of jeers, abuses, and even burning by demonstrators at home and abroad.

As a new decade dawns, one can only hope that soon the American Flag will fly over a country not only at peace with all other nations of the world, but also at peace with itself.
